COLLEGE PROFILE

BHERGAON COLLEGE the only premier and higher education institute in Bhergaon area, located in Bhergaon, Mahaliapara, Udalguri, BTAD, Assam, which is the sub-divisional head quarter of Bhergaon Administrative Sub-division. There is no denying in the fact that a country or a society cannot adapt with the rapidly changing world, without proper education. The far sightedness of the educationally conscious and dynamic citizens of Bhergaon area felt it necessary to establish a college at Bhergaon. Hence, under the spirit of various organisation, politicians and social worker a junior college with the name, viz Bhergaon Junior College was established in 2005 with much enthusiasm and overwhelming response of the students and guardians. Later the degree section in Arts stream was introduced in 2007 as Bhergaon College. The College was set up with the noble objective of catering the needs of higher education to the socially and economically backward people of the region.

We left no stone unturned to make the college full-fledged. The Degree section of the college has got 1st & 2nd year T.D.C. permission from G.U., and 3rd year permission and affiliated under Bodoland University. But this is not sufficient and many more has to be done in near future. It is an immense proud that the Bhergaon College have an excellent and hardworking staff to run it in overall development of the college. Hopefully there is full co-operation of both the Teaching & Non-teaching staff, the Governing Body, students and the public in general to bring the college to its ultimate goal.

Bhergaon College has been Provincialised on 23 December 2023, by the Government of BTC, as per the Bodo Peace Accord 6.3 clause, with respect to the Provisions of the Assam government.

Thanks
